2	I am much more interested in local speakers and local events than broadcast webinars. I think we have alot of local talent that's at least as strong as the talent on the webinars and I think we at TriUPA should make it our business to seek that talent out.	Feb 7, 2012 8:52 AM

8	I love it! Afternoon activities and activities in North Raleigh are often difficult for me to attend. RTP is centrally-located, so I would expect that to be the best place to meet for most people.	Feb 1, 2012 12:24 PM
9	Keep up the great work!	Feb 1, 2012 10:49 AM
10	I tend to be busy in the evenings, so daytime webinars work much better for me. thanks for several great ones in 2011.	Feb 1, 2012 10:47 AM
11	Please don't make all of the events in the evenings so working moms can attend.	Feb 1, 2012 10:25 AM
12	I tend to value in-person seminars over group viewings of webinars. I can say that I'd be unlikely to attend any group viewings of webinars in all honesty.	Feb 1, 2012 10:16 AM
13	The majority of the events this past year were during the day on a weekday -- which made it impossible for me to go to any of those, since I have a full time job where I can't just leave in the middle of the day! I almost did not renew my membership because of this.	Feb 1, 2012 9:51 AM
14	Evenings just don't work for some of us with kids. I know the group is diverse so having some things in the evenings and some during the days would be great. Thx!	Feb 1, 2012 9:33 AM
